MARTIN MAY GO LINEMAN KILLED TO HONOLULU AT WORK ON TO FLY POLE

Santa Ana Aviator, Famous
Palmalee and Miss Scott
Are Awaiting Word
This Morning

SEA-SICKNESS GOT SEASONED FLIER

Two Airmen Are Planning to go on a Coyote Hunt in the Near-by Hills

Glenn L. Martin of Santa Ana and Phil Palmalee, aviators, came down from Sacramento together last week, and are now awaiting word from Honolulu to determine whether or not they and Miss Blanche Scott shall go there for an aviation meet.

If the fliers should go to the islands, they would have to start this week, for the flights it made are to be made about the 20th of the month. The two aviators came down from San Francisco by boat. Palmalee, who ascends to the dizzy heights without showing the least sign of discomfort, was sea-sick, too sick to care if he ever flew again. Martin made his trip without missing a meal.

While near Sacramento Martin and Palmalee, who are both crack shots, went on a wild goose hunt. They are now planning to go on a coyote hunt here, such as is often indulged in by Will and Elmer Cubbun, Will McFadden and a few other local marksmen.

The scheme is to ride up and down unfrequented canyons in an automobile, which is allowed to make all the noise it is capable of. When Mr. Coyote is scared out and takes a scot on a hill, all hands go to work on the rifles, and if the coyote escapes it is because he was born lucky, not because he was smart.

Martin's aeroplane factory at Griffith Aviation Field, near Glendale, is nearing completion, and within a short time his men will be at work upon a fine new plane in which Martin will mount a new Curtiss motor, bought from Glenn Curtiss at San Diego. The new plane will be light, and with the tremendous driving power of the motor it will be one of the fastest planes in the business.

Martin made good in the three aviation meets, Dominguez, Oakland and Sacramento. He will both his aeroplane factory and his exhibition work and will enter the big eastern meets during the next year.

"CUT RATE" STORES HIT BY DECISION

Patentee's Prices Must Be Kept up Says Supreme Court—
New Land Filing Decision

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Dismissing from the Supreme court's decision dealing a severe blow to "cut rate" stores by holding that the sale or use of patented articles contrary to license restrictions prescribed by the patentee is an infringement of patent. Chief Justice White branded the decision as a "far-reaching, dangerous doctrine."

Justice Lamar also dissented. The majority opinion was read by Justice Lurton. The case was that of the Dick Co., manufacturers of mimeographs, against Sidney Henry, a salesman. The court ruled that patentees are a statutory monopoly, and congress alone is empowered to change the law limiting the patentee's rights.

Chief Justice White, dissenting, said: "This majority opinion curtails the rights of society. Everyone knows there are now widespread limitations as to use and price of patented articles. I bought a razor recently. I found later that I had infringed a patent, according to this decision, by paying the price asked, which was below the price prescribed by the patentee. Who can predict how far this practice will spread with the sanction now given it by the court?"

NEW RULE FOR FILING UNDER STONE AND TIMBER ACT

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The Federal Supreme court decided today that under the stone and timber act homesteaders cannot file a claim by proxy without first making personal examination of the land. MEXICO'S FATE HANGS ON TORREON BATTLE

U. S. Department of State Believes Battle
Will Be One of Greatest Since Civil War—Americans Besieged

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Confident that the coming clash at Torreon of the Mexican rebels and federals will be one of the greatest battles since the civil war, the state department is eagerly awaiting advices from its agents. Every precaution has been taken for the safety of all Americans. Diplomats believe the battle will settle the fate of President Madero, and the entire future of Mexico.

All American women and children have been ordered to leave Torreon and surrounding cities. The railroads stated they will run trains until the last moment to carry them to safety. All foreign male residents in Torreon are in a barricaded enclosure, filled with ammunition and will be prepared to defend their lives if either belligerent attacks.

The latest rebel plans indicate that Gen. Orozco's command will remain in Chihuahua, while Gen. Salazar, with five thousand men, will attack Torreon. The battle is expected before Wednesday.

The main body of federals under General Villa is advancing from Torreon to meet Salazar.

The state department reports say that the state of Durango is seething with sedition and rebellion. One hundred Americans are reported as besieged at Velardena.

Some damage was done to the Southern Pacific pier at Newport Beach. The steamer Hermosa on her way to San Pedro from Avalon, narrowly escaped being piled on the rocks of the breakwater Saturday night, because the government light on the end of the breakwater was not burning. It is not yet known what caused the extinguishment of the light. Two fishermen were drowned and several small boats wrecked off La Jolla Saturday as a result of the storm.

ALL EUROPE MAY SUFFER STRIKES

Coal Strikes Already Involve
England, Germany and France

BELGIUM MAY FOLLOW IN FOOTSTEPS OF FRANCE

Christian Socialists Alone Refuse to Strike, But Approve Action

LONDON, March 11.—With strikes declared in Great Britain, Germany and France, it is believed here that the coal industry in Europe will be paralyzed unless there is a quick settlement. The French twenty-four hours' strike is regarded as a forerunner of a general strike there. Such an action will be duplicated in the Belgian fields.

BERLIN, March 11.—Many thousands of coal miners throughout Germany struck today following action by the employers on the wage demands of the miners meeting in eighty districts.

The soldier detail in the affected regions have been doubled. Seventy-five thousand are out in the Ruhr district. In the Prussian fields, the miners are heeding the strike order. Strike leaders say the industry will be paralyzed by tomorrow.

SEEKS TITLE OF CHAMPION

Huntington Beach Basketball Team Wants to Lead State's High Schools

Los Angeles Times: The title of Southern California interscholastic basketball champions does not satisfy the ambitions of the fast Huntington Beach five, and they will leave for the north April 1 to meet the basket tossers of Berkeley High School, Sacramento and Lodi, in a series of court battles which will decide the state championship of the prep. school class.

The best wishes of all Southern California will accompany the invaders and it is hoped that Coach Jackson and his clever pupils of the basketball game will bring home the much-coveted state honors.

The record made by the sand pillars is an enviable one and their right to fly the southern blue ribbon is undisputed. Winning a string of twelve games without a single break in the High School ranks, taking the count on U.S.C. in one game and losing to Whittier, the southern intercollegiate champions, in a close 38 to 35 game, is the way Jackson score book reads.

It is seldom that a high school team slips one over on a college quintette, but that is what the Huntington Beach boys did to U.S.C. in their first game. 27 to 25 was the score, and it must be remembered that the Trojan varsity copied one of Whittier's bean bags about the same time.

In the second game, played on the university court, U.S.C. won by the same score (27 to 25) as was chalked up against them in the early contest; but as these games were not in the interscholastic schedule, they had nothing to do with the standing of the high school championship.

The Whittier game was one of the sterling scraps of the local basketball season. It was given and taken during the two long rounds and at the sound of the gong in the last session, the score stood a draw, with the figures on the board giving each team 35 chips.

The play-off proved a Waterloo for the high school lads and Whittier carried off the wreath with 38 points, against Capt. Livernash's 35.

The phenomenal success of the team is largely due to the clever tutoring of the coach, Jackson, is a finished athlete of the new school. Track, baseball, basketball, swimming and even football have been the specialties of this Jackson chap, and not only is he a close observer and scientific theorist, but his choice collection of Western intercollegiate medals prove his practical knowledge of all athletic branches.

The City Trustees will hold a meeting tonight to receive bids for the construction of the sewer system for the district bounded by a line 125 feet outside of First, Baker, Fifth and Artesia streets.

This district has been working hard for months to get sewers, and finally took the only way that seemed likely to get the sewers within a reasonable time. They asked that the sewers be put down under the Vrooman Act, and the procedure laid down in that act has been followed.

One of A. J. McFadden's coyote-killing Russian wolf hounds captured three first ribbons and a silver cup at the Pasadena Dog Show last week. He took first in the novice class, first in the under 5 years old class, and the special ribbon and cup offered by the Mirasol Kennels of Pasadena. He was the reserve winner in the competition in which the winners of the various classes were entered. There were eleven winners in this competition, and reserve winner means he was scored second. The hound that beat him was one brought from Connecticut at a high price. McFadden's hound defeated a hound that has been considered the finest Russian wolf hound on the coast.

McFadden's wolf hounds are death on coyotes and rabbits. A few weeks ago one of his fine dogs was chasing a rabbit. The rabbit made a quick dodge, and the hound went head-on into a tree, breaking his neck.

DON'T WAIT

Take Advantage of a Santa Ana Citizen's Experience Before It's Too Late

When the back begins to ache, Don't wait until backache becomes chronic; Till serious kidney troubles develop; Till urinary troubles destroy night's rest.

Profit by a Santa Ana citizen's experience.

P. G. Etchison, 820 E St., Santa Ana, Calif., says: "Since using Doan's Kidney Pills in 1907, I have had little need of a kidney remedy. A dose or two on a few occasions when I have noticed pain in my back has sufficed to relieve the trouble. My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills as was expressed in a public testimonial I gave two and a half years ago, remains unchanged, as I value them as highly as ever. I was subject to attacks of kidney trouble for months and if I brought any strain on my back, I was sure to suffer from backache. Knowing that this misery was due to disordered kidneys, I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Wheeler and Mateer's Drug Store. They went directly to the seat of the complaint, and I could not have asked for greater benefit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Taxicab Robbers Run Down By Woman Sleuth

NEW YORK, March 9.—"I do not care for the distinction of being the first woman to become a member of the detective force. But I hope my work will be so successful that I will be known as one of the cleverest detectives in the department."

This was the statement of Mrs. Isabelle Goodwin, who was made a detective sergeant at a salary of $2,250 a year because she succeeded in obtaining the evidence that led to the arrest of the taxicab bandits who committed a $25,000 daylight robbery in the heart of the financial district. And if the success that she has already met with is any criterion, Deputy Commissioner Dougherty says, the male members of the force will have to look to their laurels if they do not want to be eclipsed by a woman.

Mrs. Goodwin, the widow of a policeman, was acting as police matron at the time of the taxicab robbery. She had some experience in detective work in running down clairvoyants and other fakers. When the police failed to make much headway on the taxicab robbery case, Inspector Hughes pressed her into service. The detectives had learned that Edward Kinsman and Jess Albrozo, two of the suspects, were sweethearts of Annie Hall and Myrtle Hoyt, inmates of a dive. Mrs. Goodwin went to the resort disguised as a woman of all work, and secured employment. Today she told the story of her adventure as follows:

"Even my own people did not know what I was doing. I stayed in that dive for a week and during that time I did not get more than 10 hours' sleep. I was obliged to drink strong coffee every hour to keep awake. I knew that I might miss the opportunity to get the information I sought if I was not constantly on the alert.

"I wore a kimono of doubtful freshness and put a shuffle into my walk. I did not have anything to say to any of the inmates of the resort and they evidently did not think I knew enough to be anything but harmless."

Often I would tiptoe to the door of Annie and Myrtle's room and listen to their conversation. If I heard one of them make a move to come to the door, I would knock and ask to borrow a needle or make some other excuse.

"The language that came from that room was dreadful, but I just closed my ears to their vile remarks and prayed that they would talk about the robbery. Finally I heard one of them say:

"Well, Eddie, the boob turned a great trick, didn't he?"

"Then Annie began to boast that she would soon have so many fine clothes that her friends wouldn't know her. At another time she complained that Kinsman had failed to call her by long distance from Albany."

"At the various times I would sneak out of the place and telephone to Commissioner Dougherty. I had to be on the lookout constantly for fear some one would follow me."

"Finally, however, I got the information that was needed and Kinsman, Albrozo and the rest of the gang were caught."

"Now that they have made me a detective sergeant I expect to earn my salary instead of accepting it for the work I have already done. I hope that I will be detailed to work on cases similar to that of the taxicab robbers. I love the excitement and I want to show just what a woman can do when the chance comes her way."

RAIN PLENTY FOR PRESENT

Fall for Twenty-four Hours Ending Yesterday Morning Was 1.64 Inches

According to Justin Copeland's rain gauge on Sycamore street north of the Presbyterian church, the rainfall for the twenty-four hours ending yesterday morning was 1.64 in., with 2.81 in. for March and 5.03 in. for the season.

A few limbs were torn off and a few trees were blown down by the wind Saturday evening. In that regard this locality got off very lightly in comparison to some of the other Southern California cities.

The rain was sufficient to satisfy the ranchers for the present. Showers later on will be needed, but the 2.81 in. fall this month has soaked the ground well, and with good weather hundreds of ranchers will be in the field in a day or two, plowing, harrowing and cultivating. The bean growers are well pleased. Much of the barley that had been considered ruined has come out wonderfully well.

But two or three piles were taken out of the Southern Pacific wharf by the gale that Saturday night did considerable damage along the Southern California coast.

The full force of the storm was felt at 5 o'clock yesterday morning when a shift of the wind swept up the harbor, wrecked the big launch Emily, owned by Mrs. Ella Cady; the Royer, owned by George Nelson; the Charlotte of C. A. Gee, and the East Newport Town Company's Tommas. The steam dredger of the Collins Commercial Company sank in fifteen feet of water and is considerably damaged.

DRUG STORE AGAIN ENTERED BY BURGLAR

Went in, Looked Around, Found no Money, Took Nothing Away With Him

The Tustin Drug Store had a burglarious caller last night. The visitor took a pane out of a window at the rear of the store, and thus gained entrance. He found the cash drawer open, and nothing in it.

The druggist has looked carefully through his show cases and stock, and is satisfied that the burglar took nothing away with him. He evidently came for money, and finding none went on his way.

A few weeks ago the drug store was entered in much the same manner, the cash drawer broken open and a few dollars taken away.

Spiritism Said to Be Demoniac.

A most interesting little brochure has recently come off the press setting forth with Bible proofs that the communications received by and through Spiritist Mediums is of Demoniac origin. The writer traces his subject through the Scriptures from the time when certain of the holy angels became disobedient. He proves from the Scriptures that these fallen spirits personate the human dead, with whose past history, spirits, though invisible, are thoroughly acquainted. He shows that they also frequently personate the Creator and the Redeemer, commanding their deceived ones to pray, do penance, etc. This, however, is merely to lead them on and to bring them more thoroughly under demoniacal control. Sometimes by breaking down the natural barrier, the human will, they possess their victim, and rule him more or less to his ruin—frequently sending such to the mad-house. Numerous illustrations, Scriptural and otherwise, are given. The price of the little book is but ten cents; it should be in the hands of all interested in Spiritism or who have friends interested therein. Enclose five two-cent stamps to the Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE WILL HEAR FINAL COUNT OF VOTE BALLOTS

Seven Candidates Have Passed the 400,000 Mark—Struggle After Struggle Fails to Develop Distinct Leadership and the Race Is Just as Close as It Looks.

This beautiful E-M-F "30" Touring Car, value $1450.00 to be awarded the candidate in the Register's Contest who receives the greatest number of votes.

SUBSIDIARY PRIZES
Always bear in mind that in this contest there are to be awarded a large number of subsidiary prizes, so that any contestant who really works will be sure of winning at least fair compensation for services rendered.

So far as announced the subsidiary prizes are as follows:
Set of Dining Room Furniture, offered by the Horton-Spurgeon Furniture Co., Value $85.00.
Diamond Ring, offered by A. J. Padgham & Son, Value $80.00.

Two scholarships in the Orange County Business College (one to be awarded to each of two contestants), value $65 each; total value $130.00.
White Sewing Machine, "Sit-Strate" model, offered by J. R. Dean, local agent for White Sewing Machine Co., Value $80.00.

Three Scholarships in the Orange County Conservatory of Music (one to be awarded to each of three contestants); value $20 each; total value $60.00.

The following gentlemen have consented to act as judges next Saturday night, March 16th, and make the final count of votes in the Register's Popular Ladies' Voting Contest:
Mayor Frank E. H. T. Rutherford.
C. S. Crookshank.
W. B. Williams.
Judge Z. B. West.

The last hours of the great contest are closing in on the candidates. Saturday night at 9 o'clock they will cast their last ballots.

Be sure that you have all your subscriptions in before the closing hour and that all your ballots are cast. No subscriptions will be received by mail or otherwise after 9 o'clock p. m. This applies to all candidates.

Every candidate living outside of Santa Ana should be at the closing of the contest, but if you cannot come, be sure that you place your subscriptions in the mail early enough to reach here before the contest closes. All mail matter should be sent SPECIAL DELIVERY to insure prompt dispatch.

Ballots for subscriptions received after today for out of town candidates, will be kept by the contest manager and be given to the candidates in whose favor they are made out on Saturday, otherwise they may not reach you on time to be returned here to be polled. All such ballots will be held until 9 o'clock and if the candidate does not call for them by that time to be polled by herself, the contest editor will poll them for her.
No vote coupons clipped from the paper will be counted after Thursday evening at 4 o'clock, so get all your FIVE VOTE COUPONS in as fast as possible.

Everybody Invited
The candidates, their friends and the public from everywhere are invited to witness the closing of this contest, and no one can afford to miss it who enjoys the sight of a throng of people and real excitement. Don't miss it next Saturday night, no matter where you reside. The contest does not close until nine o'clock. That will give time to the ryone in the remotest part of the county to be here with the thousands of people who are interested in one candidate or another, and the results of an evenly matched race for ROYAL HONORS and big prizes.

We would like to accommodate the large gathering that will likely be here Saturday night, but the office of the Register is just so big and will only accommodate so many people. If you want to be within earshot of the judges you will have to come early.

Candidates Progressing
The candidates, each and everyone of them, are doing their best in the final effort for honors during the last days of the heaviest battle for ballot ever waged in this section of California. Each one realizes that she has worked hard. Some feel more confident than others, but those who feel less confident are as likely winners as those who feel sure of success. One candidate has as good a chance to win the E. M. F. Touring Car as the other, and the candidate who becomes discouraged now, does go at the risk of losing what might have been hers had she kept up the race. It is going to be so close that the last three days of the campaign will decide the winner.

A Battle Royal
The race is just as close as it looks, and that is why the candidates will have to keep hustling, and is the very reason why the last five days of this contest will have much to do with deciding the winners.
You can't afford to become the least doubtful as to your success, but on the other hand you must keep digging hard so as not to let your competitors get a single subscription more than you do during any one of the five days that remain.

Notice to the Public
—I desire to notify my friends and the public in general that I have purchased the Iowa Barber Shop, and in future will conduct it on the most sanitary lines. My prices will be as follows: Hair cut 15c, shave 10c, bath 25c. Open Sunday, mornings and usual hours week days.

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC OBEYS THE LAW WITHOUT A FIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Following the enforcing of the State Railroad Commission's order to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company to reduce its rates between San Pedro and Los Angeles thirty-three and one-third per cent comes an inside story which relates a fact of far greater importance to the people of California.

The Southern Pacific Railroad Company has been taught that it is amenable to the law, and that unless it respects the California statutes its prominent officials will find themselves in jail.

At 1:45 o'clock on February 27, the Southern Pacific Company capitulated after a struggle against the latest order of the Railroad Commission. The company had been given until 2 o'clock of that day to comply with the commission's order or suffer the consequences.

Papers had already been drawn by President John Eshleman of the Railroad Commission and Attorney Max Thelen, committing Sproule, President of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, and William F. Herrin, Chief Counsel for the Harriman line, to jail for contempt of the commission's order.
At 1:45 o'clock the notice of surrender was telephoned to Eshleman and the papers were torn up.
Sproule and Herrin were well aware of the alternative the company had. They had learned the fact from Eshleman during an interview one week previous when Sproule suggested that the company would disobey the order and the commission could

Los Angeles agents as the basis of a test case. Eshleman promptly informed Sproule that the time for arresting agents in California was passed, that the first man to go to jail should be the order be disobeyed would be Sproule and the second man, Herrin. He gave them until 2 o'clock February 27th to make up their minds.

The reduced rates between San Pedro and Los Angeles are now in force and mean an annual saving of $260,000 to the shippers of Southern California.
The saving to California shippers following the San Pedro decision, brings the total saving to the shippers of California in consequence of the ruling of the Eshleman Railroad Commission up to $1,000,000. The commission has been in power fourteen months.

ONE MILLION DOLLARS FOR A GOOD STOMACH

This Offer Should be a Warning to Every Man and Woman

The newspapers and medical journals recently have had much to say relative to a famous millionaire's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse until in the end it became incurable. His misfortune serves as a warning to others.

Everyone who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach.

Dyspepsia is commonly caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices, or by lack of tone in the walls of the stomach. The result is that the stomach loses its power to digest food.

We are now able to supply certain missing elements—to help to restore to the gastric juices their digestive power, and to aid in making the stomach stronger and well.

We know that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are a most dependable remedy for disordered stomachs, indigestion, and dyspepsia.

We want you to try them and will return your money if you are not more than satisfied with the result.

The size, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Wheeler and Mateer Drug Company, 104 West Fourth street.

OUTPUT FOR 1911 SHOWED INCREASE

Contrary to predictions generally made at the end of the year the California quicksilver output for 1911 shows a considerable increase over that of 1910. The production for 1911 was 19,109 flasks, valued at $879,205 in flasks of 75 pounds, figured at $46.01 per flask, which was the average price for the year received in the San Francisco market. This is an increase in quantity of 1444 flasks, and in value of $80,203, over 1910.

The largest production came from San Benito County, followed by Santa Clara, Lake, San Luis Obispo, Napa, Sonoma, Santa Barbara, Trinity and Colusa counties, in the order named. The following counties also contain quicksilver deposits, some of which promise to become producers at an early date: Kings, Monterey, El Dorado, Fresno, Shasta, Solano, Stanislaus and Yolo.

Unusual activity has been apparent among operators and owners of quicksilver mines during the past year, and at the present time the outlook for a further increase in the 1912 production is favorable.

During the last twelve months a 15-ton furnace has been built in Lake County; work on a 20-ton furnace in San Benito County has been started, and a 24-ton furnace has been completed in Sonoma County, in addition to the reduction plants already in operation in those counties. New furnaces with 24 to 40 tons capacity, respectively, have also been erected in Monterey and Fresno counties.

The 1911 quicksilver production has not been exceeded since 1905, when the product was sold for $886,081. The output was valued at $712,334 in 1906; $663,178 in 1907; $763,520 in 1908; $773,788 in 1909, and $799,002 in 1910.

FIGHTING FOR COAST ROUTE

Petitions Are Being Circulated

Asking for State Road Near Ocean

J. A. Armitage of Sunset Beach Writes a Letter Arguing for Boulevard

Petitions have been circulated along beach cities of this county, and signed by many residents of the beaches, asking the State Highway Commission to route the state road through this county along the coast. The Board of Supervisors recommended the main county road through the interior of the county, and when the State Highway Commission was here members stated that they thought the main road would be followed. Many people of the county have considered the matter practically settled with the exception of the route to be taken to Los Angeles county from Fullerton. The beach people do not consider the matter settled, and are proceeding to make a vigorous fight for the scenic coast route.

J. A. Armitage of Sunset Beach, a vice president of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, has written his views on the subject to the Newport News as follows:

"The last legislature of this state, in enacting a bill providing for the construction of two highways through the state, north and south, opened a way for its people to build a monument for enterprise which would result in benefits so great that it is doubtful whether even a small portion of the population has any conception of the good that would accrue from it. We are deeply impressed with the possibilities resulting from the construction of a coast boulevard—a scenic road from San Francisco to San Diego, six hundred miles long. It is to be hoped that the people of the great state of California will not allow the chance to build such a boulevard to pass. No other state in the Union could hope to equal such an accomplishment because no other country in the world could successfully undertake to construct such a boulevard and furnish with it the climatic conditions which would of necessity attach to the entire success of the enterprise. The enormous prestige in publicity that would follow the completion of this roadway is difficult to realize, for a modern roadway of such proportions, under modern conditions, would be more popular and hence more widely known than the Appian Way of ancient Rome and would at all times and under all conditions direct the world's attention to the big things done by a big state that is today setting the pace for a big population. It is of paramount importance that every citizen of California interest himself to the extent at least of lending moral support to the completion of this most magnificent enterprise and make it their personal duty to dispel any apparent desire to diverge from the road from its logical course along the Pacific coast always as nearly as possible within sight of the ocean. Any divergence, except it be minor, would, in the opinion of the writer, irretrievably impair the continuity of an otherwise magnificent achievement and would result in lessening the greatest good to the people of a great state by means of a public enterprise and would undeniably fail to achieve the result for which the state highway bill was enacted."

ATTEND THE MEETING

Don't forget the meeting to form a Roosevelt club, in the Armory tomorrow night. These clubs are being formed all over the state, and will be the direct organs through which the campaign will be carried on.

The club will of course be affiliated with the state organization formed last week, and through it with the other clubs all over the state. Theoretically, there is supposed to be one club for each assembly district, but practically it will probably be found easier to follow natural instead of artificial divisions. A single county organization, or a central organization in Santa Ana with branch organizations in the smaller towns, would probably be found more convenient. There must be a central executive committee, to have active charge of the campaign, and to serve as an organ of communication among the voters.

The occasion is important enough to justify a representative attendance from out of town, and to make it worth while for Santa Ana citizens to take pains to be at the first meeting. It is not merely the good citizenship of showing your face and being counted, but also the importance of seeing that things do not go by default into a few unchosen hands.

Also, this meeting should determine, or take the first steps toward determining, whether there should be a separate organization for the women, or whether all the citizens shall be merged into one organization.

In either case, active steps will have to be taken very soon to assure the general registration of women. The majority of the men were already on the old register, but of course the women have to be registered now, except those who have been recently registered.

And the women will doubtless wish to do some civic organization separately for educational purposes, whether they wish their organization for political activity to be separate or not.

Altogether, this campaign presents too many new problems to be left simply to run itself. As the first actual step in the campaign, tomorrow night's meeting is worth taking part in.

And of course, if you are for Taft instead of for Roosevelt, all these arguments, with a change of names, apply to turning out to the meeting, if and when such a meeting shall be called, to organize the Taft forces.

A SPLENDID ACHIEVEMENT

The Register is always pleased to commend enterprise; to congratulate itself and the community, as well as those to whom we are indebted for it; and especially is it gratifying when the enterprise is of a character to command admiration on aesthetic as well as material grounds.

An epoch in such an enterprise was marked by the opening reception of Saturday at the new home of the Orange County Savings Bank—the soon-to-be Orange County Savings Bank and Trust Co.

This splendid new structure, with its beautiful finishings and furnishings, its imposing fixtures, its massive vaults, is something which Santa Ana can point to with just pride and sincere satisfaction. It is a signal example of far-seeing and public-spirited enterprise. It is a case not only of building for the future, but of contributing liberally to the present welfare of the community.

It would probably have paid the bank better, directly and immediately, and in mere dollars and cents, to have built a less expensive and less ornamental banking house. But the bank management chose to recognize aesthetic as well as material values; and these values are shared not only by the officers, stockholders and employees of the bank, but by the entire community. They act and react and manifest themselves in a multitude of ways, all beneficial and helpful.

Not a single business structure of any consequence will ever in the future be built in Santa Ana that will not in some measure or degree be improved by the fine example and elevated standard set by the Orange County Savings Bank. And, looking backward, we cannot fail to recognize that the general spirit of improvement and development, the constantly rising standards in the business structures of the city during the past few years, have made possible the achievement of this institution.

And so we grow from grace to grace, ever onward and upward.

late and clarify,—that the Reactionary campaign is to be made under the Progressive banner. Men who are Reactionary at heart, or whose records are Reactionary, or at best negatively Progressive are being presented or groomed as Progressive candidates.

In preparation for this the Reactionary political managers began long ago to "plant" their "tools" in Progressive organizations, and through these agencies, cunningly chosen and secretly operated, the Reactionary candidates are being developed and forwarded under Progressive brand and auspices.

The Progressive organization in Orange county is, we believe entirely free from Reactionary influence, but in many other counties of the state the Progressive organizations are dangerously inoculated with Reactionary virus. You will hear on every hand that the men who were pioneer Progressives in the Johnson campaign are merely the leaves-and-fishes Progressives; and that the real, simon pure Progressives-for-principle only are those who stood aloof until the Johnson fight was won.

We believe that all true Progressives welcome to their ranks all sincere converts, and that they do not question the sincerity of many who were slow to take a Progressive stand or who may even now assume a conservative Progressive attitude, but the man of doubtful or questionable Progressive record or alliances who presents himself for office, without opposition or even with support from openly Reactionary sources is to be viewed with alarm and avoided as a plague political, however prominent and praiseworthy he may be personally.

WHY ROOSEVELT?

Because Roosevelt when president showed a disposition to check the seizing of the common rights, the sequestration of common property, and because he aroused the conscience of the people to their deplorable and ignominious circumstances, he is turned to by the people now when a perpetuation of Taft and his reign of money is sought by those who profit by it.

It is not Roosevelt. It is a MAN who is wanted. A MAN who will stop predatory wealth in its theft of all that's ours by inheritance, and who will as Lincoln did, re-FORM the nation, and restore to the people the government which has been taken by plutocratic rascals.

If the present parties do not accomplish this, they go. Already the cleavage to party is slight. The People this time will have a REAL leader or they will rend the foolish parties and make a new alignment.

To Roosevelt may be committed the task with augury of success.

To let Taft go on is republican harakiri.—Riverside Enterprise.

"THOU MUST" OBSERVED

Progressives, near-Progressives, and Progressive Reactionaries differ, the substantial gains of the Progressive movement in California during the last two years continue to multiply.

The Southern Pacific Company, for example, has decided to observe the law in the San Pedro rate decision. Under this decision The People were given substantial reduction in railroad rates. At the eleventh hour the corporation appealed to the federal court. The federal court decided against the company. The company gave evidence of continued opposition. Intimidation was given that only some poor devil of a clerk would suffer, even though the State Railroad Commission were successful in its prosecution. Then came a sort of counter intimidation that President Sproule and Chief Attorney Herrin would be made the principals of any "test case" that might be instituted. Fortunately, however, neither clerk nor president,

WHY THE ROSEBERRY LAW

Contributed by the Industrial Accident Board

LIABILITY WITHOUT FAULT.

The law of liability in damages for industrial injuries is all based on the idea that somebody must have been to blame or the accident would not have happened, and it is hard for us to get it out of our heads that anyone should be forced to compensate anyone else for an accident unless the employer was somehow to blame for the accident.

Nevertheless "Compensation" does not stop to inquire who was to blame, except in very special, and very rare, instances. It asks this question in cases where the employer has evidently been guilty of "personal, gross negligence," or "willful, personal misconduct," or in cases where an employer "violates a statute enacted for the safety of his employees," which, if it had not been violated, the injured employee would not have been hurt. In such cases, even though the employer may have elected to come under the "compensation" provisions of the Roseberry law, the injured person may step outside that law and sue for damages. This is because the law holds that that kind of an employer deserves to be punished for his lack of heart, and also has no moral right to tax up to the ultimate consumer the cost of an industrial injury for which he himself was wholly and flagrantly to blame. He should pay that cost himself.

In one other instance, "Compensation" raises the same issue, and that is where the injured person brought the injury upon himself through his own "willful misconduct." If he did that he is not entitled to compensation. He must bear the burden himself as best he may, because he willfully brought it on himself. However, this term, "willful misconduct," is very strictly construed wherever it is found in a compensation law, as it is found in most of them. In England, it is held to mean that he "willed to do it," that is, hurt himself on purpose in order to get the compensation provided for in the law, a thing that does sometimes happen where men live a treadmill existence until they become stale and morbid and desperate and crave a change even at the cost of a hand or an eye. Even in such cases, in Altogether the employer may not be morally responsible for industrial injuries he is in the line of their causation and the law says to him: "Go ahead if you wish to. Set all the great forces you please into operation for your own profit, but if, in conducting your industry, damages are inflicted upon others in consequence of it you must make good the loss. You have no right to follow for your own profit an industry that maims and kills, burns and runs down, and then throw the product of disaster upon the general public to be taken care of at other men's cost. Each industry must take care of its own killed and wounded." Is not such a law perfectly sound in principle?

WASHINGTON "PRECEDENT" IS NOT A RULE FOR ROOSEVELT

(BY WILL H. FISCHER.)

Much outcry has been raised by frightened Reactionary papers because of what they refer to as a proposed violation of the "third term precedent" established by Washington.

A precedent furnishes an example, but not necessarily a right rule of action. But let us grant that the precedent of Washington's retirement represented a right rule of action to be observed at that time. A given rule or law, if sound and logical in the first place, remains sound and logical just so long as it applies to exact in which the conditions are exactly the same. Introduce new elements and conditions, or eliminate original elements and conditions, and your rule, or precedent, once admirable, becomes inapplicable.

There is no fair-minded man who will deny that several of the causes which most moved Washington have been eliminated from consideration; nor will any thinking man deny that a thousand new conditions and elements have entered into the national situation in this country since Washington's time. The financial, social and industrial developments in America have forced a crisis at this period which most of the people feel is not to be met as they would have it met by the present occupant of the White House. The tried and proven ability of Roosevelt, his known and oft-demonstrated belief in popular government, and other considerations which will suggest themselves to every reader, have brought the former president to the front as the man who can best serve the nation. Therefore, what was a good precedent, perhaps, for Washington, is not of ruling force in the case of Mr. Roosevelt. And let us never forget that Roosevelt has not sought to re-enter political life; he has done so in answer to popular demand.

But for the benefit of prim people who are overawed by contemplation of the divine authority of human precedents, it is worth while to recall that the precedents which rule in so many American courts today are at the root of the people's dissatisfaction with the administration of the law. The people are tired of having cases involving modern conditions decided on the authority of laws enacted in England a few centuries since, and followed from that time to this by timid, weak-legged judges.

It is well, also, to mention one or two "precedents" that were quite common during Washington's time, although he was not responsible for them. A century ago women had practically no civil rights in this country. Now, in California and other states, they have the same rights as men. Who will say that we ought to return to "precedent" in this matter? No one—because conditions have changed. A century ago, and much later, slavery was a recognized institution in America, despite the Declaration of Independence. Should we declare for it again? It is "precedent," but every decent man and woman will say it should not govern now. A century ago many men were in prison for debt. But we don't imprison men for debt now. Should we live by "precedent" in that respect?

The man who believes in doing what was once the proper thing to do, rather than in doing what is the proper thing to do in his immediate circumstances, should logically be content to wear a fig leaf and let it go at that.

nor chief attorney were made to suffer for any inconvenience. The railroad, for the first time in the history of the California State Railroad Commission yielded to the "thou must" of The People of the State of California as represented in that commission.

It is quite evident that it is possible to make the State Railroad Commission a very useful institution.—Franklin Hitchborn in Sacramento Bee.

PASTOR RUSSELL SPEAKS ON MARS HILL

"Unknown God" Again Declared in Athens and Corinth.

In the Words of St. Paul, He Declares That For a Long Time God "Winked" at Polytheism and Image Worship, "but Now Commands All to Repent."

PASTOR RUSSELL

Which He will Judge the world." (Acts xviii, 31.) He said:—

Enroute to your city I visited Athens. As I stood upon Mars Hill and made a short address my mind reverted to the account of Saint Paul's preaching there, and I have chosen some of his words on that occasion as my text. As St. Paul made no impression there it is quite improbable that I made any.

True, it is not today fashionable in civilized communities to worship images; and yet in another sense it is still fashionable. There is still much idol worship throughout the civilized world, but in a different form from that of old. No longer do we bow before wooden images, but before inward images, the images of our minds, our mental aspirations—with some, wealth and fame; with others, ease and pleasure, and with still others, the creeds, idols of our forefathers, miserable misrepresentations of the true God.

The Day of Judgment.

Saint Paul on Mars Hill preached Jesus and the resurrection—Jesus as the Redeemer from the death sentence, making possible the resurrection of the dead by satisfying the demands of Divine Law against the sinner—the resurrection as the means through which the blessing of the Savior's death will reach Adam and all his children.

Addressing the Gentiles, the Apostle explains that for a long time God had "winked" at Polytheism and image worship, "but now," he says, "God commandeth all men everywhere to repent." How did God "wink" at sin and idolatry? And does He still "wink" at it? And why did He change and when did He begin to command repentance?

We answer: For four thousand years idolatry prevailed and God took no notice of it. He did not "wink" at the idolaters' dying in their ignorance, and say to the devils, "Take these poor creatures who know no better! Roast them to all eternity!" Nothing of the kind! Our forefathers merely imagined that and by false reasoning convinced themselves, and twisted texts of Scripture which they did not properly understand in support of this theory.

Let us note carefully what the Apostle says respecting God's appointed Day for the judging of the world. He says that the command to repent now goes forth to all men everywhere, "because God hath appointed a Day, in the which He will judge the world." The Apostle does not refer to that Day as already begun, but as merely appointed or arranged for in advance. He means that in arranging that "Jesus, by the grace of God, should taste death for every man," God was arranging that every man might have a judgment or a trial, to determine whether or not he will be worthy of this blessing which Jesus' death provides him an opportunity to secure.

"The Mystery of God."

The purpose of the nineteen centuries between the time when Jesus died as man's Redeemer and the time when He will take His Throne, as the Restorer of Adam and his race, is spoken of as a "mystery," because the great work of grace herein accomplished is measurably hidden from the world.

The Scriptures tell us who may understand this "mystery," and when it will be finished. They say, "The secret of the Lord is with them that fear Him, and He will show them His Covenant." They tell us that "In the days of the voice of the Seventh Angel, when he shall begin to sound, the Mystery of God shall be finished," which He hath kept secret from the foundation of the world. (Revelation x, 7.) Saint Paul refers to this mystery, saying that it was "hidden from past Ages and Dispensations," and "is now revealed to the saints." (Colossians i, 26, 27.) He explains what it is—that we should be fellow-heirs, and of the same Body with our Redeemer.—Eph. iii, 6.

We should notice this wide difference between the reward promised the Church and that proffered the world. The difference is as to nature. The reward for the world will be earthly, human nature, with everlasting life in an earthly Paradise or Eden—world-wide. Mankind never lost a spiritual or heavenly condition through Adam's disobedience, nor in any other manner. He never had such a condition or nature that he could lose it. He was made man, "a little lower than the angels." This which he lost Jesus paid the redemption price for at Calvary; and these things lost are the very things which Jesus and His elect Bride will restore to mankind during the thousand years of the Messianic Kingdom. "The Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

HAPPY JUVENILE PARTY

Little Ones Aided Mildred Joyce in Celebrating Birthday Last Saturday

The rain of Saturday did not prevent little Miss Mildred Joyce from celebrating her tenth birthday at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. W. H. McCord, on Orange avenue.

Promptly at 2 p. m. the young guests began to arrive and their shining faces peeping through the rain drops told little Miss Mildred that they were there for a good time, and a good time it was from start to finish. The whole house was thrown open for their pleasure. Games were played, a musical program rendered by the little guests, and a general good time seemed to be the order of the day.

The parlors were decorated in roses picked by Mildred in the rain, while the long table with its snowy white cloth, was decorated with ferns and violets, the birthday cake with its ten candles adorning the center of the table.

Many were the dainty little remembrances brought by the little friends. At five, the following little girls bid Mildred good-bye and were whisked away in automobiles to their homes: Grace Garrett, Lella Ketchner, Mildred Stouffer, Rena Reed, Elizabeth and Julia Bruner, Merle and Jean Wilson, Josephine Scott.

Mrs. McCord was assisted in entertaining the little ones by her niece, Mrs. Cora Joyce, and her daughter, Miss Bessie McCord.

Had Pleasant Trip

Mrs. E. A. Clardy and her son Grady Clardy, went to Bakersfield last Friday evening to visit some ranch property bought by Mr. Clardy some months ago in that vicinity. Several other Santa Anans, including P. H. Covington, E. C. Martin, Col. Hill, H. H. Kelley and James Nuckolls have bought land in the same locality.

Mrs. Clardy and her son motored from Bakersfield to their property twenty miles from the oil city. They were greatly pleased with the country. They report rain in that section, and snow in the mountains through which they passed on the return trip yesterday. At Tehachapi, the Clardys got out to make snow balls and otherwise enjoy the feecy snow.

They reached Los Angeles last night. Mrs. Clardy coming on home while her son remained in the city to resume his work at U. S. C. this morning.

While in Bakersfield Mrs. Clardy was the guest of Mrs. Compton, formerly Miss Elizabeth Nunn of Santa Ana.

Piano Talk Postponed

The talk on "The Piano—Its Construction and Care," to have been given at the Orange County Conservatory last Saturday afternoon by Mr. Oliver Remberg, was postponed on account of the driving rain. It will, however, be held next Saturday afternoon at the Conservatory at 4:30 o'clock, and all are invited to hear the excellent discourse on the subject which interests almost every family.

Was Ninety Today

Dr. J. A. Rowan today celebrated his 90th birthday and was an honored guest at the J. A. Buckingham home at a dinner befitting the event. Dr. Rowan had numerous invitations to eat his ninetieth birthday dinner with friends, but was pre-empted early by the Buckingham family. His legion of friends wish that he may round out a century of life before he says good-bye to a world in which he has played an active part.

On account of the storm on Saturday afternoon, the lecture by Mr. Remberg on "The Piano—Its Construction and Care" did not take place. If the weather is favorable it will be given next Saturday at the Conservatory at 4:30 o'clock. You should hear this talk whether you have a piano or not.

THOSE SPRING HATS

Brightly Trimmed Chapeaux Were Shown at Millinery Openings Saturday

A riot of color, of roses, of lilies of the valley, lavender lilacs, Oriental ornaments, gay silks, rich velvets, softly falling plumes, perky wings, saucy bows, filmy malines, big-meshed laces, braids of hemp, Milan, and leghorn, dashing hats of crash, dress hats of brilliant fancy braids, all these and more, formed the elements of the dazzling spring millinery shown in the millinery openings of last Saturday.

The rain poured all afternoon, likewise the wind blew, and the skies lowered with heavy cloud masses, but even such a weather combination failed to daunt the spirits of the gentle sex or keep fair women from the attractive displays of millinery at the openings advertised by the Misses Ruthertford and Miss O'Donnell. It was really surprising how many ladies braved the stormy elements and how astonishingly good the sales were. The lovely fabrics and charming hats in all their bright spring colorings were all the more attractive perhaps from the contrast with the gusty, stormy day.

There was a quaint imported crash hat with tam effect in the crown, with sides overlaid with a lace mesh in tan shade that attracted much attention in the Ruthertford establishment. A dainty Gaby creation of maline, with long, stiff bows of the maline, which were most fetching, was also greatly admired there.

A big Leghorn hat with rolling brim faced in black velvet, and ornamented with pink roses with moss stems and tiny buds, and two upstanding bows of pink was one of the striking hats shown by Miss O'Donnell. Another shown by her was a small black velvet bonnet hat with crown of crushed pink roses and a high standing loop of black velvet.

Cherry, cerise and primrose pink are the leading new shades, but all tints are seen in the luxuriant coloring of the spring millinery.

SUGAR TRUST MEN ON TRIAL—CASE MAY BE LONG DRAWN OUT

NEW YORK, March 11.—After a month's delay, the trial of the indicted sugar trust officials, charged with crushing the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Co., opened today. The trial is expected to drag for weeks, and be full of technicalities.

The defendants are Washington Thomas, president of the American Sugar Refining Co.; John Parsons, former legal director for the sugar trust, and Thomas Harned, a Philadelphia lawyer. The accused officials were indicted June 19, 1909.

BANQUETERS WERE TAKEN BY SURPRISE

Orange News: As Marshal Warner was returning to his home after 10 o'clock last night he discovered a light in the basement of the Christian church and proceeded to investigate. He found seven young men engaged in a discussion of the remnants of the banquet held earlier in the evening. Five of them left precipitately, but he captured two and from them learned the names of all the party.

It appeared that two of the boys familiar with the arrangements at the church had gone out into the byways and gathered together certain of their hungry friends, extending the invitation to enter the church via the basement. The marshal told the boys that they and their friends need not be surprised if called upon in the morning, and with that comforting assurance turned them loose.

ART EXHIBIT WAS SUCCESS

Students of High School Given
Opportunity to See Prints of Paintings

ANAHEIM, March 11.—A Horace K. Turner art exhibit from Boston, Mass., was held the last three days of last week in the high school building under the direction of the Parent-Teachers' Association. The exhibit was held both for the education of the art students, who in this manner have a chance to see the prints of some of the most famous paintings in existence, and the proceeds, which are to go towards buying works of art for decorating the school rooms. The exhibit was a success in every way, although the rain on Saturday spoiled that day. The receipts, which will be spent for pictures, amounted to $50, which is quite a nice little sum.

The exhibit is conducted by this company, which tours all over the United States, showing these works of art. It is composed of over 200 pieces averaging in size from 24 to 36 inches in dimension, and are of colors and prints.

The exhibit lasted from Thursday, March 7, to Saturday, the 9th. On Thursday the exhibit was used by the grades, and in the evening a reception and program was given by the Parent-Teachers' Association. The program consisted of music and an address by Prof. Hartranft, who spoke of the value of works of art in the home.

Friday, March 8, the exhibit was used by the children of the grammar grades and at noon a candy sale, conducted by the students of the Domestic Art, resulted in a neat sum of money. In the evening a program in the Fremont school, by the grammar grades, was enjoyed.

On Saturday afternoon a reception by the Ebell Society was planned, but the rain kept the people away, and the meeting in the evening was also abandoned.

On the evening of the 29th of this month the debating team of the local high school, which is composed of Ashley Chamberlain and Howard Krause, will meet the debating team of South Pasadena high school, on the subject: "Resolved, that the Recall of Judiciary is a wise measure." The debate occurs in South Pasadena, and Anaheim has the negative.

HILLS CORNER.

What is this we hear about a bridge across the river at Seventeenth street?

Is it a fact that "all of the people" of the county cannot afford to put up the amount of money needed and that if we have the bridge the merchants of the county must subscribe to the expense? We have seen enough of that.

The property of the people of the whole county and the property of non-residents must, so far as the Kansas Tin Shop is concerned, pay the bill and on a fair assessment, we will gladly pay our proportion and no more.

When some of the vacant lots of Santa Ana and other towns are improved the assessor is able to "make a note out" and the taxes are increased, while adjoining lots are left barren and become foul seed distributors the tax remains as before.

Away with your "contributions" for public work and let those men (and women) we have chosen to do the needed work, make a levy sufficient to pay for all the bridges we need and all other improvements and we will dig up for our share of the expense.

SATURDAY'S RAIN HELP TO RANCHERS

ANAHEIM, March 11.—The rain which started Saturday morning fell slowly but thoroughly all day long Saturday, and at 5 p. m. 1.28 inches had fallen. After 5 o'clock in the evening .55 of an inch fell. Since the recent storm on the 4th, 3.68 inches fell, and on Saturday the rainfall was 1.53. The rainfall for the season to date 5.24. The effect of this rain on the general business of this section is great, but the benefit to the ranchers is estimated in the thousands.

Mr. Schmidt, the father-in-law of H. A. Dicke, has been quite sick for the last few days.

Peter Syre, the baker, expects to start for his old home in Germany on the first of the month, to be gone a few months.

M. F. Justice, with Bingham's barber shop, is taking a week's lay-off for a visit with his sister and friends in Los Angeles. His sister has just arrived from Illinois.

Erwin Barnes of the Stroup Barnes Furniture Co., spent Sunday with his folks in Santa Ana.

The basketball game which was to have been played yesterday on the local grounds with the Santa Ana team, was postponed on account of the rain. Although no definite arrangement has yet been made it is expected that this game will be played next Saturday.

Witman, the jeweler, expects to put in some new equipment, which will add to the attractiveness of his store.

Mrs. Margaret Martin of Buena Park was a guest of Miss Madeline Whitaker on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and attended the dance Friday night of the Young Ladies' Dancing Club.

Mr. Chapman is now able to be around again after a hard spell of sickness, and will soon be able to go back to work with Beebe, the implement man.

W. Allen of Los Angeles, is now with Franz & Hussmans barber shop.

Saving Him

"Why have you and Miss Sweet broken off your engagement?"
"Because she loves me so."
"That's a queer reason."

"Not at all. She believes in fortune telling, and when she went to have her future revealed not long ago she was informed that she would be married three times. That settled my case, for the time being at least. She said that she was determined that I should not encounter the danger of being first on the list."

NORWALK ROUTE MEETS WITH FAVOR

Fullerton Chamber of Commerce Makes Its Roads Preference Known

Fullerton, March 11.—The chamber of commerce has gone on record favoring the Norwalk, Buena Park and Commonwealth avenue route for the State highway which will soon be selected to run through this city. They will ask the co-operation of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange County when it meets in Santa Ana on the last Wednesday of this month.

The reasons for favoring this route instead of the route from Los Angeles by way of Whittier, is that if it should go that way, there would be scarcely any road improvement necessary, as the Los Angeles county road extends this side of Whittier. By selecting the route by way of Norwalk and Buena Park it would make the distance between Fullerton and Los Angeles, and at the same time have two routes into the city. Between this city and the good roads in Whittier there is only a short stretch, and this will probably be included in the county good roads proposition that will be decided by the people of the county as soon as the state highway has been selected.

Another matter of general importance was the present park space just north of the Santa Fe depot which amounts nearly two and a half acres. The chamber of commerce Friday discussed this matter and it was decided to urge upon the city council the matter of its improvement into a place of beauty. The matter has been taken up with the Santa Fe railroad and they have promised the services of their landscape gardener in laying it out.

Those present Friday night felt that the city should not delay in improving that park for it would add greatly to the beauty of the city. At present there is no park at all, and the closeness of the park to the depot where so many easterners come there on the overland trains would be a splendid advertisement for the city.

The matter of the chamber of commerce paying half the expenses of a night watchman to be secured was discussed. At the last meeting of the city council, it was agreed by that body that such a man would be hired if the chamber of commerce agreed to pay half. It was decided to make an attempt among the merchants to raise the amount.

Those present congratulated themselves on securing the high school site for the central tract instead of allowing it to go far out of town.

Plain Hunger.

"Doctor, what disease is the most prevalent among the poor?"

"An alarming condition in which the nerve terminations in the stomach, stimulated by accumulated secretions of the gastric glands, send irritations to the spinal cord, by way of the pneumogastric nerve."

"Goodness! How awful! And to think that we rich people can do nothing for those unfortunate sufferers!"
